

Bonnie Russell Biography

Bonnie Russell is the current NYS PTA President. She has held the positions of Vice President, Parent Engagement Chair, NY Parent Teacher Editor, Central Region Director, and Central Region Treasurer at the State and Region levels. She has also been the president of the West Genesee PTA District Council and the Stonehedge Elementary School PTA. Recently she finished her term as the New York School Public Relations Association treasurer. These are all volunteer positions.

She received her BS degree in Finance from Bentley College and is also currently employed by the West Genesee Central School District as the School Information Officer. She and her husband Charlie have two children, Ryan and Molly and they live in Syracuse, NY.