Preliminary<sup>1</sup> Team Recommendations from December 20th

Recommendations for change in teacher practice (short term):

1. Allow students the flexibility to participate in the design of their own assessments.
2. Evaluate current assessment system within their own classroom and grade level.
3. Integrate student choice for students to show their learning for one (upcoming) assessment.
4. More authentic assessment.
5. Provide specific feedback to students. Look at data and create next steps for instruction.
6. Really try to balance the types of assessment being used in the room.
7. Stop taking the same photos over and

Read Jay's responses to the questions from Day 1. Note that line numbers have been provided, as well as a generous right margin so you can annotate the text. As you read, consider the five prompts in the table below. Share your reactions to each of the prompts in the table by January 25th. If you're sharing your thinking after someone else, change the font to a different color and be sure to start on a new line.
